

How to Book a Speaker

To request a speaker, contact:

Raymond Walters College

College Relations
9555 Plainfield Road
Cincinnati, OH 45236
Phone: 513-745-5685 or 513-936-1577
Fax: 513-745-5790
Email: Gwendolyn.Dean@uc.edu

A reservation form will be sent to you requesting the following:

- Contact name, address, and phone number
- Organization name
- Date, time and place of meeting
- Type of meeting, (i.e. subject matter, topic)
- Size and nature of audience
- Length of speech desired
- Topic and speaker desired

Return the form and your confirmation information will be sent to you.

The speakers listed are available to speak to your group on the topics that are currently available from RWC's Speaker's Bureau. The RWC Speaker's Bureau is a community service offered by UC Blue Ash Raymond Walters College. There is no fee for Speaker's Bureau services.

Publicity for your Event

You are responsible for arranging the publicity for your event. RWC will send you a copy of the speaker's resume for publicity purposes along with an evaluation form to be completed and returned after your event.

Possible publicity opportunities include distributing news releases to newspapers, radio and television stations and online calendars; posting organizational newsletters and flyers in community locations; and sending out materials through organizational mailings.

UNIVERSITY OF Cincinnati
Raymond Walters College
College Relations
9555 Plainfield Road
Cincinnati, OH 45236

 Raymond Walters College
Speakers Bureau

Raymond Walters College
"a great place to start"

Find the right speaker with the right message for your organization's next meeting.

Raymond Walters College Speakers Bureau

The UC Raymond Walters College Speakers Bureau offers speakers who have a wealth of information on topics that may be of interest to your organization. Our faculty, staff and alumni have many years of experience in various educational and professional venues. This group would like to offer its expertise by being a part of your seminars, conferences, conventions and meetings at your school, church or civic organization by speaking on interesting topics of discussion.

Speakers have materials already prepared for specific topics or speeches may be tailored for an issue of concern for your particular organization. Topics cover everything from history to music, finances to literature, or animal care to dental care. If you are interested in a topic not listed here, let us know if we may be able to help.

RWC speakers are available to speak with schools, clubs, professional organizations, senior centers, theater groups, churches, museums, library groups, and any other not-for-profit organizations.

Lee Baker, PhD

Areas of expertise include:

- Nazi Germany
- The French Revolution
- The Holocaust
- World War II

Baker has published articles for International Social Science Review, The Historian, and Women's Studies: An Interdisciplinary Journal. He has been a professor in RWC's History department of since 2002.

Ruth Benander, PhD

Areas of expertise include:

- Children's Literature
- Dealing with Culture Shock
- Effective Study Skills
- How Male and Female Language Differs
- How to Prepare for International Travel
- Mythology
- Second Language Learning
- The History of English

Professor Benander can also tailor any talk to accommodate most requests concerning language and travel. She has written articles for Journal of General Education, E-sources Newsletter and The Year of Languages: Challenges, Changes, and Choices. She has been a professor in the English and Communications department of RWC since 1993.

Cynthia Crane, PhD

Areas of expertise include:

- Contemporary Fiction and Nonfiction
- Literature into Film
- Media Representations of Men and Women
- "Mixed Marriages" and Identity Issues
- The Story of Divided Lives
- The Writer, The Publisher, and The Media

Crane is the author of the historical nonfiction, Divided Lives: The Untold Stories of Jewish-Christian Women in Nazi Germany. Her work has appeared in various publications, including Mid-American Review and Popular Culture Review. She has appeared on national radio and TV, and has spoken at numerous venues in the U.S. and abroad. Her awards include a Fulbright Scholarship (Germany) and a P.E.O. National Scholar's Award. She has been a professor in the English and Communications department since 1998.

Patricia Frese, RDH, M.Ed

Areas of expertise include:

- Benefits of Fluoride
- Careers in Hygiene
- PANDA-Prevent Abuse and Neglect through Dental Awareness
- Personal Dental Care
- Special health-related dental needs

Frese has been a professor of Dental Hygiene at RWC since 1980 and is a member of the American Dental Hygienists Association, The Ohio Dental Hygienists Association and The Cincinnati Dental Hygienists Association.

Barbara A. Kunselman, RDH, MS

Areas of expertise include:

- Oral Pathology
- Periodontics
- Research Methodology
- Special Needs Patients
- Topics in Dental Hygiene

Kunselman is a professor of Dental Hygiene at RWC and has made presentations to The Cincinnati Dental Hygienists Association, The Ohio Dental Hygienists Association and Advanced Educational Resources.

Darice K. Pacak, MS

Areas of expertise include:

- Careers in Dental Hygiene
- Dental Hygiene
- Oral Anatomy
- Oral Health Topics

Pacak currently holds memberships in the Cincinnati, Ohio and American Dental Hygienists Associations and has been a professor in RWC's Dental Hygiene department since 1983.

Rhonda Pettit, PhD

Areas of expertise include:

- Creative Writing Workshops
- Human Rights & the Arts
- Poetry
- Women's Literature

Pettit is a published poet and author/editor of literary criticism about Dorothy Parker, A Gendered Collision and The Critical Waltz. She is an associate professor in the English and Communications department of RWC.

Dennis Riedmiller, BS, CBC

Areas of expertise include:

- Ancillary Employee Benefits
- Consumer Driven Health Care
- Insurance
- Medical Plans

Riedmiller is an alumnus of RWC and has twenty-eight years of experience in marketing and sales. He currently holds licenses in ten different states.

Mike Roos, MA

Areas of expertise include:

- American Folk Music
- Bob Dylan
- John Lennon
- Live Performances of Folk Music (vocal, guitar, and banjo)

Roos has taught in the English program at RWC since 1976. He has written 300 songs, made several independent recording samples, and has published several articles on the music of Bob Dylan and John Lennon.

Jennifer Wells, DVM

Areas of expertise include:

- Veterinary Medicine (infectious diseases, vaccines, parasites, heart worm disease, etc.)
- Veterinary Technology

Wells has been Assistant Director and Assistant Professor in the Veterinary Technology program at RWC since 2002. She presented to such groups as The Ohio State Radiologic Society, The Cincinnati Veterinary Technician Association, and The Midwest Veterinary Conference.

Frank Wray, PhD

Areas of expertise include:

- Biology
- Ecology
- Zoology

Wray is an assistant professor of Biology at RWC.